

Jim Crow

Unfortunately, many Southerners still believed Black Americans should be treated differently something which was still happening in the 1960s!!!!!!!!!!!!

---

Jim Crow

Southern States introduced the Jim Crow Laws.

Which of the following laws do you think are fair????

---

Fair or Not

Black Americans could not:

- Marry a White American
- Eat in the same café as a White American
- Drink from the same water fountain as a White American
- Travel on the same train or bus car as a White American

---

To make matters worse some White Americans created a group called the Ku Klux Klan who thought it was fair to murder, terrify and discriminate Black Americans.

Not only were there ideas silly, look how they dressed!!!!!!!

Freedom Fighters

By the 1960s' the Black Americans had enough of this discrimination and through their own bravery and ideals and the support of many White Americans the rules began to change!!!

---

Rosa Parks

Rosa Parks had enough of not being allowed to sit where she wanted on a bus.

Watch this song all about Rosa Parks

Martin Luther King

Martin Luther King was a Black American Preacher who campaigned for the end of Black people being treated differently.

He famously delivered the 'I have a dream speech'

Martin Luther King

Tragically Martin Luther King was assassinated just like Abraham Lincoln

However the Civil Rights Act which stopped discrimination against Black Americans was passed in 1964.....99 years after Abraham Lincoln had set the slaves free!!!!!!

John F Kennedy

Perhaps the most famous president of all time, JFK wrote this speech about Civil Rights:

“Our duty as a Party is not to our Party alone, but to the nation, and, indeed, to all mankind. Our duty is not merely the preservation of political power but the preservation of peace and freedom. Let us stand together with renewed confidence in our cause -- united in our heritage of the past and our hopes for the future -- and determined that this land we love shall lead all mankind into new frontiers of peace and abundance”

John F Kennedy

Unfortunately, JFK never got to speak these words as he was assassinated the next day in Dallas!

Fighting for the rights of others was not good for your health!

Black Power

---

Despite facing prejudice Black Americans rose to power in all aspects of life!!!!!!

Cassius Clay changed his name to Muhammed Ali (Clay was his slave name) and became perhaps the most famous sports person ever!!!!

He became almost as famous for talking as he did for boxing

Barrack Obama

---

Finally after centuries of prejudice, the Black and White campaigners for equal rights got their ultimate reward with the appointment of Barrack Obama as the 44th American President in 2009.

Obamas mother was white and his father was African.

Here is Obama talking about how the Civil Rights movement succeeded. Obama
