

THE
GAZETTE
OFFICIAL PUBLIC RECORD

Celebrate your achievement with an official Certificate of Record

An official record of achievement for you and your award-winning voluntary group

The Gazette is the UK's official public record, and the oldest continuously published newspaper.

In being gazetted, your King's Award for Voluntary Service has been published by authority and permanently recorded in The Gazette.

You are in the company of monarchs, prime ministers, inventors, actors and other major contributors to the UK and its territories and dependencies, over the course of 350 years.

To commemorate your award, you can buy a deluxe presentation
pack containing a replica edition of The Gazette awards supplement and a personal Certificate of Record, which is perfect for framing as a special memento.
